

IEEE PIMRC 2013 Conference Banquet

This year's banquet will take place at the The Garden Room in Syon Park on Tuesday evening.

Syon House and its 200 acre park is the London home of the Duke of Northumberland, whose family have lived there for over 400 years. The Garden Room is situated in a secluded garden within the park's stunning grounds.

Just across the river from Kew Gardens, Syon Park is less than 10 miles from central London – we will of course be providing transport directly from the Hilton London Metropole to the venue (and back again!).

A sparkling wine reception will be provided upon arrival, followed by a three course meal and finally tea, coffee and petit fours. Beer, house wines and soft drinks will be complimentary throughout the evening (there will be a cash bar for all other drinks if none of these take your fancy) and there will be some entertainment (to be announced) and music for those of you who like to dance!

We hope that you will join us – it is set to be great evening!

One ticket is included in the full registration package only. For all other registration types, or if you would like to bring guests along, additional tickets must be purchased.
